

6516209009.txt

I am a truck driver and xm radio is an essential part of going through big cities, traffic reports, and most importantly i can't watch T.V to learn the latest news and there isn't any radio stations that offer anything like that around here. There is barely any radio in my area any way. I just want my voice to be heard because xm radio is the best thing that has ever came around before so thank you for reading this.